I just made final arrangements today to run the Jumah services on the in-house channel at NCF. It will run repetitively (one service over and over) from 0900-1700 every Friday starting tomorrow, 1-18-2013. We only have two recorded services now, but as Jim records each month and sends it, it will be added to the rotation. I will notify some of the Muslim inmates today and post a flyer on the Chapel bulletin board.

Dear Atty: Smith:

Yes, I have been told by those supervising our in house broadcasting system that time will be made available to broadcast these services.

Chaplains and all,

That is great news. As the volunteer is only able to come in 1x a month are they going to be broadcast in Concord as well on Fridays? That would also give inmates housed in SHU (at least if they have a TV) an opportunity.

I spoke with Jim today, and he is sending me copies of the first two services they have had in Concord, and will record and send the service each month. I guess we will just rotate the services, and, as time goes on, there will be greater variety. The important thing is that it will enable the inmates to pray along with the group on the recording each week. We plan to set it up for Fridays at 1230 hrs.
